HONORS 392 -001 India’s Ancient Plays (3 credits)
TU TH 9:15am – 10:30am, Keiser Hall, Rm 102
Dr. Mohan Limaye
Class #77367
In this elective honors course, entitled “Plays of Ancient India” or “Dramatic Classics of India,” two masterpieces will be studied intensely. Shakuntala and The Little Clay Cart form some of the core sources of India’s literary tradition. The two plays complement each other in the sense that, though both treat of love in its manifold aspects, they differ radically in their ambiance. In this course, we will also explore the social milieu of these works and the seamless continuity of India's culture to this day. The course may appeal also to those with special interest in Linguistics and Comparative Literature.
